Re: Fred Carr
Central Valley, New York

Dear Sir and Brother:

The above matter has been referred to me by Thomas L. Hickey for appropriate disposal.

Mr. Carr was discharged by the H. L. & F. McBride company of Goshen, New York for being drunk on the job. This occurred while Mr. Carr was laying over for a ten hour period at the company's terminal at Arkport, New York.

Instead of sleeping, as the lay over period is intended, Mr. Carr, and some of the Arkport drivers spent this time drinking, and attending some other affair. This in its self, was not too bad, but Mr. Carr returned to duty in this condition, and got into a truck and drove it.

The company produced five statements signed by drivers, and mechanics, who were in the Arkport Terminal at the time this happened, to the effect that Mr. Carr was glassy eyed, his speech was affected, his language was profane, and his breath smelled of alcohol.

In addition to this, I went to the Arkport terminal, and interviewed some of the men who signed these statements, and further, interviewed some of the men who were with Mr. Carr on his night out. I could find nothing, which would indicate that Mr. Carr was framed, or that he was not in the condition the company claimed he was. The men he was out with, admitted that they had several drinks, and that Fred Carr took a belligerent attitude toward some of the people in the garage, when they took him back to go to work.

Mr. Carr was placed on another job, when it became evident that the company had a good case against him. He left this other job of his own accord, as far as I know, and has never reported to me, to this day, that he was out of work.

I believe this to be a full and honest report of what took place. If there is anything further you would like to know, please feel free to write at your convenience.

CC: T L Hickey

Fraternally yours

Dear President:

Congratulations on your present election and the best of luck.

I wrote to Mr. Beck former President
Mr. Beck on November 18, 1957. On December 27, 1957 I received a letter from Mr. Wickey stating he had rec'd several letters from your office but nothing from me. He has a full account at his New York office of my discharge as I went down in person. He told Mr. Beck President of ^{the} Local to get busy on the ~~old~~ cases. Mr. Beck told me I lost nothing but I like to cut his wages about $3000 last year and let him live on unemployment
with two children.

When I found out they were going to do nothing I wrote to Washington. I feel as a union member I

I should received the same courtesy and respect I gave to them.

I answered Mr. Tuckey letter a month ago but received no word or heard from him since.

Do you think I should be forgotten about with a family where I feel I am not quiet? Should we let Mr. Van Bruden be our superior?

Thank you

Mr. Fred Carr

How Now, White Cow?

Pickets stand along side the milk tank truck in Queens, N. Y., following strike of drivers who deliver milk to the metropolitan area. Effects of the strike, called because of a contract dispute, are not expected to be felt for a few days as supplies on hand. A meeting of mediators with the disputants is scheduled for this morning. Meanwhile, pickets at the South Queens Dairy Co., see photo right. —Story on page 3

Mr. Dave Beck

Dear Sir:

I am writing as a wife of a teamster Mr. Fred Carr.

He has been in the teamster union
as a milk tank driver for about 10 years.
He never was fired from any job
in his career of working.

He was fired at H. T. & F. McBoiles of Boston, N. Y. right after the last milk strike in July, him being active in it. He drove their for almost four years with clear record and no accidents. He was discharged for ~~intoxication~~ ^{intoxication} which was untrue.
Five men signed statements his eyes were glassy & clothes disheveled
when leaving Airport Terminal. Mr.
McBoile believes this story.

Mr. Carr asked Mr. Hedder the union delegate to bring it into arbitration but was refused Mr.

Dickens advised Mr. Carr he did not vote for him so why should he do anything for him. What kind of people have we in the union? He seems all on Mr. Bride's side so lets not let H.S. & F.
Mr. Bride ruin the union.

Mr. Carr had to go on car carriage in order to make a living now much to his dislike.
Its make this a union for the employees who pay wages and other delegates wages.

I think things like these should be brought to your attention.

Thank You

Wm. Fred Carr
